

facelift

The final lower level is where the function and event area is located, commonly known to Moyo as the 'Rock Room' which boasts a dramatic double volume bar with various art cut-outs, each with their own Swahili meaning that tell a different story.

200

The space can hold up that many guests for functions, corporate events or private functions.

